TORPID LIVER

Loss of Appetite,

The JOURNAL agrees with the Ogden Pilot in its assertions that if the Honorable William Windom of Minnesota had never while representing his State in the United States Senate, done anything else in his legislative career, the mere fact of his reporting the "Bill for the suppression of the opium traffic" ought to be of everlasting credit to him. The telegraph report does not say who is the author of the bill, but to any one who is conversant with the use and abuse of the drug among the Chinese, to say nothing of people of other nationality, it will recommend itself. We are here in a position which promises a course of action diametrically opposed to that taken by Great Britain in 1840-41 and 42 when the Chinese endeavored to put a stop to the opium trade of the Anglo-Indian Government. England, however, was too strong for the Celestial Empire, and China was not only obliged to swallow the opium but also to open four ports in addition to Canton, to British trade and to pay the nice little sum of $21,000,000 towards the expenses of the war. We do not propose to go into an argument on the subject of the "Opium War" but we do feel that strong restrictive measures of the kind reported by Senator Windom are much more creditable than forcing a drug which however valuable it may be as a medicine, is pernicious in the last degree when used as a means of dissipation, on to a people against their will even if it is in order to protect a great industry. Any one who knows the habits of our Chinese population is aware of the fact that the opium habit is their curse, and in many cities opium smoking, as indulged in at the time they have, is made a crime or misdemeanor and punished accordingly; but the fascination seems to disregard all law, and the only way to put a stop to it seems to be to prohibit the importation and unrestricted sale of the drug and this the bill provides for, not only in this country, but also in China, although endeavors will be made to evade its provisions, yet we hope sincerely that it will be carried out in full force and the efforts of the Chinese Government be seconded by our own in this laudable measure. The bill provides that an importer of opium into the United States, by a Chinese subject, shall subject the goods to seizure and the importer or consignee to fine or imprisonment, or both; and the same penalties are to be enforced against any citizen of the United States who takes opium in any of the open ports of China.

We hope the bill may pass, as it is a good one and may in a measure put a stop to the nefarious traffic which is now carried on among the Chinese.

A Varied Performance.

Many wonder how Parker's Ginger Tonic can perform such varied cures, thinking it essence of ginger, when in fact it is made from many valuable medicines which act beneficially on every diseased organ.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold 25c. at a box everywhere.

RAILROAD PROSPECTS.

The Interest Felt by Our Northern Friends.

The Sierra Valley Leader, of last Friday, publishes the annexed: "While in Reno the other day, the writer made some inquiries in regard to the prospects and intentions of the N. & O. R. R., concerning the extension of that road into Sierra Valley. Knowing it to be of interest to many residents of the valley we will state that, from the little information gathered, it is exceedingly improbable if any further progress in the completion of the road is made for some time yet to come. The road thus far completed is mortgaged for much more than its value, besides which there is a large unsecured indebtedness against the company. Under these circumstances, it is impossible to make any more progress. The time may come when somebody may purchase the road for a portion of its value, and complete the undertaking. Yet it is questionable if the enterprise would ever prove a profitable investment. There is an apathy of feeling among the merchants of Reno concerning the matter, some of them even asserting that the road would prove a detriment rather than a benefit to that town. So the people of this valley and those to the north have but little to hope or fear of the speedy completion of the road. It is stated, however, that the Union Pacific Railroad contemplate building an independent line of their own from Ogden to the Pacific Coast. This move is made necessary on their part, to protect themselves from the Southern Pacific. The through freight is now controlled by the Central and Southern Pacific folks. To counteract this, the line from Ogden is contemplated. Should this line be built there is a possibility of the road being constructed by the way of this valley and down the Feather river. This is the easiest and most natural route across the Sierra Nevada. If this plan be carried out it will open a fine timber country and prove a blessing to Sierra Valley beyond all else. What this valley needs is an opportunity to transport its products, and it is hoped the long-looked-for railroad will before long be constructed. In case this project should fall through, the best thing remaining is to build a road from some near point on the O. P.—Boon or Truckee. A road would undoubtedly pay, and steps to put the project in proper shape might with profit be undertaken immediately."

Indian Items.

Johnson Sides dropped into the sanatorium yesterday afternoon to give his usual budget of Indian items, reporting everything all right at the Pyramid Reservation, and the Indians catching plenty of fish. A prosperous season is looked for this year among the farmers, as the new big ditch is nearly done, and there will be all the water necessary for irrigating. Johnson says the Indians of Western Nevada contemplate a grand whoop-up at Walker Lake in the Spring. He did not forget to deny the assertion that he poisoned a pair of Tom Clark's boots, insisting that a boy named Austin did the felonious deed. The item here ends, for at this stage of the proceedings Mr. Sides was incontinently "fired" from the sanatorium.

The Senatorial Ball.

On Tuesday, the 27th of February, two days before the close of the session, a Senatorial ball will be given at the Carson Opera House. The appeal says the Senators propose to spend several hundred dollars making the ball an affair which will eclipse any previous thing of the kind in Carson. The notion of the committee is to spare no expense in the arrangements. The invitations will be of the most select character and will be issued as soon as possible.

Carp?

Fish Commissioner Parker came up from the Bay yesterday morning, bringing with him some of the carp lately sent out from Washington. He gave Alvaro Evans ten of the little ones to put in the reservoir.

Run Over by a Wagon.

EUREKA, Feb. 17.—Eugene Blair, one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s old messengers, but now of Bristol, Lincoln county, met with a serious accident last Tuesday by being run over with a wagon loaded with wood. At last accounts there was little hopes for his recovery.

No Indictment Against Reek.

The Eureka grand jury, instructed by Judge Rives to investigate the killing of James E. Anderson by George J. Reek, unanimously voted to present no indictment. This action was taken with a full presentation of the facts obtainable by District Attorney Garber, and a thorough consideration of all the evidence.

General Sherman is soon to give a dinner party to some of his personal friends, which it is said will be the finest of the season, and probably the last that the General of the Army will give.
